

Dear New Yorker,

I want to offer my condolences to all those who lost loved ones or colleagues in the events of September 11, 2001.

I also want to offer the services of my office and staff should you, your family or friends need help in the aftermath of this disaster. My Manhattan office may be reached at (212)860-0606, and my Queens office at (718)932-1804, or you may reach us by email at rep.carolyn.maloney@mail.house.gov. Complete information for those affected is available on the web at www.house.gov/maloney

I am heartened by the response in Congress and across the nation to our city's anguish. We are not standing alone—there are no Democrats or Republicans, only Americans who still love New York.

Sincerely,

Carolyn B. Maloney
